IN THE NATION'S CAPITAL: Having exhausted their credit and power of taxation, states returning to Colonial practice of charging tolls on superhighways. . . . Results from abandonment of "pay-as-you-go" basis of local responsibility in favor of centralized federal aid. . . . Suggests utilities provide good place to stop trend as any nation is safe from socialistic abuse as long as utilities are not in hands of the state, July 5, p. 13. . . . Provisions of new Defense Production Act reviewed. Only 17 states provide for commission regulation of co-ops. President indicates electric utilities will be No. 1 whipping boy during political campaign. Communications Act amended, July 12, p. 17. . . . Public utilities issue does not appear in GOP campaign agenda. . . . However, Democrats will probably play it up. Look for Eisenhower to speak out on drift toward socialism. 82nd Congress does little in passage of major legislation, July 19, p. 15. . . . Personnel shifts and reductions likely in NPA due to budget cut. . . . OPS also to undergo streamlining, though it will still set ceiling prices on poles. NPA copper and aluminum allotments liberal. Kansas commission rejects co-op application, July 26, p. 13.
Analyzes platform evolved at Democratic convention. . . . REA, co-op encouragement, land and water resources. Steel strike settlement . . . easing of material controls foretell satisfactory supply by Fall. Possible new avenues for REA activity, Aug. 2, p. 17. . . . August starts off another round of telephone rate increases. Settlement of steel strike and nomination of Texas' Martin Dies as congressman show politicians "learn the hard way." President appoints 14 members to new WSB, Aug. 9, p. 13. . . . Assesses evolution of political parties from standpoint of business interest. Important for public utilities to take long-range sights on Republican and Democratic groups as they are undergoing changes of character. Covers REA activity, Aug. 16, p. 17. . . . Review EEI report on prospective nationalization of railroads and two recently published books—"Unions and Telephones" by Jack Barbash (history of CWA), and "The Farmer Takes a Hand" by Marquis Childs (supporting government financed cooperative movement in rural electrification), Aug. 23, p. 13. . . . NPA Communications Equipment Division likely to survive, at least to end of year—Potter of Indiana Bell and Lucier of United of Indiana take over division. Reviews court cases concerning directory advertising and rates, Aug. 30, p. 14.
Hopes discussions of "regulatory lag" in telephone rate cases will bring solution to problem. . . . Suggests task committees of NARUC, Bell System and USITA hold conferences to see what steps industry and commissions can take to reduce time for trying rate cases—particularly those of small companies, Sept. 6, p. 13. . . . Telephone rate cases main battleground in commissions' fight to cope with inflation. REA increasing telephone loans. Japan's first television service under private enterprise, Sept. 13, p. 11. . . . Boston investor's decision to sell Western Union holdings should be of interest to telephone men. Announce changes in government defense agencies. Questions whether farm supports could be continued in a recession. Reviews founding of Labor Day, Sept. 20, p. 13.
Reviews two rate cases in Baltimore and New Jersey which should be of interest to entire industry. Discusses Wilson's proposal to get government out of business. Wickard against monopoly in telephone service, Oct. 4, p. 18. . . . Federal Communications Commission affirms intention to stay out of rate cases involving cities straddling state-lines. Public utility section of American Bar Association offers suggestions for solving regulatory rate lag, Oct. 11, p. 13. . . . Comments of Joe Stalin's heir in Russia at communist congress should give believers in private enterprise reason to pause. Reviews two odd state commission rate decisions—New Hampshire and Ohio. Discusses Indiana co-op's borrowing from another co-op to buy Detchon estate properties, Oct. 18, p. 17. . . . FPC proposes rule for freezing rate cases. Utility personnel asked to ignore local CD registration drives. Holding off utility rate increases because of feeling that prices will go down dangerous philosophy, Oct. 25, p. 80.
NPA liberalizes M-77 Order to permit telephone companies increased authorization privileges to obtain CMP materials. Baruch enters telephone rate case. U.S. Chamber of Commerce uses telephone directories to show growth of federal government. Outlines "blueprints" of socialism for America, Nov. 1, p. 15. . . . Election of Eisenhower does not necessarily mean no political tension for utilities, but their position will be less subject to hostility than under 20 years of Roosevelt and Truman policies, Nov. 8, p. 11. . . . Reviews results of Eisenhower's landslide from standpoint of Washington and business. REA Administrator Wickard corrects impression that he is in favor of area competition between telephone companies in letter to Welch, Nov. 15, p. 23. . . . Discusses prospective changes in federal agencies and legislation dealing with utilities as result of election. REA loans to telephone companies and cooperatives represent high per station investment, and big load for rate structures, Nov. 22, p 13. . . . Eisenhower's first cabinet appointments show not only "plenty of polish," but plenty of good hard substance, as well. . . . There are no amateurs "in the crowd." NARUC committee hits high corporate and excise taxes on telephone companies, Nov. 29, p. 13.
Eisenhower's new Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson, is a practical farmer, but his enthusiasm for cooperatives should be of interest to telephone and electric utility people. Representative Tabor has his eye on the Agriculture Department and REA appropriations in his economy campaign, Dec. 6, p. 20. . . . Senate committee, which probably will be headed by Senator McCarthy, asked to investigate FCC on issuing radio and TV licenses. CIO needs diplomatic and resourceful leadership to bring unity. Foggy outlook on government controls, Dec. 13, p. 25. . . . Bell rate cases in Pennsylvania and Maryland result in deciding important principles in establishing rate base. Municipal law officers and NARUC in favor of amending Federal-Aid Highway Act to allowing federal compensation to utilities for relocating facilities incidental to federal highway construction, Dec. 20, p. 19. . . . Welch makes 1953 predictions which indicate a "brighter prospectus for the telephone industry." Gives himself a score of 90 per cent on 1951 forecasts, Dec. 27, p. 18.
Workman, Mayme: Operator's Corner, July 12, p. 23; July 26, p. 17; Aug. 2, p. 19; Aug. 16, p. 31; Aug. 23, p. 25; Sept. 20, p. 20; Oct. 18, p. 19.
